

FLM200: THE MSU FILM COLLECTIVE | FALL 2015

TRUTH
AND LIES

Do you believe it? Fargo: "this is a true movie"! Can a movie be true? Kumiko: The Treasure Hunter is a movie based on a woman who (supposedly) saw Fargo, believed it was true, went to Minnesota and froze to death in the snow looking for the buried treasure. Both Fargo and Kumiko: The Treasure Hunter lied about being true. Can a movie lie? Can a lie be true? Most importantly, is this the right question to ask of a movie, or is it always the wrong question? Can it be right and wrong at the same time? At the end of this series, the last day of the last showing, we will provide the true answer to this question.
